

To file for an Elder or Dependent Adult Abuse Restraining Order in Pasadena, California, you will need to complete the following forms:

1. Request for Elder or Dependent Adult Abuse Restraining Orders (Form EA-100)
2. Confidential CLETS Information (Form CLETS-001)
3. Notice of Court Hearing (Form EA-109)
4. Proof of Personal Service (Form POS-040) or Proof of Service by Mail (Form POS-050)

Here are the step-by-step instructions to file the paperwork:

1. Obtain the forms from the Pasadena Courthouse or download them from the California Courts website.
2. Fill out Form EA-100, Request for Elder or Dependent Adult Abuse Restraining Orders. Provide detailed information about the abuse, including the date(s) and location(s) of the incidents.
3. Fill out Form CLETS-001, Confidential CLETS Information. This form asks for personal information about you and the person you are seeking protection from.
4. Fill out Form EA-109, Notice of Court Hearing. This form will provide you with the date and time of your court hearing.
5. Prepare Form POS-040 or POS-050, Proof of Personal Service or Proof of Service by Mail. This form documents that the other party has been served with the restraining order.
6. File the completed forms with the Pasadena Courthouse. You may need to pay a filing fee, but you may be able to request a fee waiver if you cannot afford to pay.
7. Attend the court hearing on the date and time specified on Form EA-109. Be prepared to provide evidence of the abuse, such as witness statements or medical records.
8. If the judge grants your request for a restraining order, you will need to serve a copy of the order on the other party using Form POS-040 or POS-050.

I hope this information helps you file your paperwork. If you need additional assistance, you may want to contact a legal aid organization or a domestic violence advocate in Pasadena, California.
